

- To navigate to All KQL Operators and view their syntax search in Microsoft learn - “KQL Quick reference”
- To view all table names and check which column they contain - “advanced hunting schema” then change the filter to MS defender XDR
- To check the roles and their permissions - “RBAC roles” then change the filter to MS sentinel
- To search license requirement, search individually
- To search all defender for cloud apps policies in learn – search “policies” and change the filter to defender for cloud apps, click on the “Create anomaly detection policies” then from the left navigation pane click on “Control cloud apps with policies > Overview”
- To search all attack surface reduction rules – search “attack surface reduction rules” from learn and click on “Use attack surface reduction rules to prevent malware infection” then from the left navigation pane click on “Attack surface reduction rules reference” which is two level below.
- To search for ASIM parsers search - “asim”
- To search for strong identifiers search – “asim” then click “Advanced Security Information Model (ASIM) schemas” then from the left navigation pane go to “References” down below (Last second option) then “detection and analysis references” then “entities reference”
- To search the event viewer codes search - “Active Directory Domain Services overview” then click “security identifiers” (second option) then from the left navigation pane scroll down and click on “Best practices for securing Active Directory” then “appendix L events to monitor”